From Mass Disruption to Critical Mass of Progress

Thank you for joining in this pivotal moment to seize the opportunities in the wake of pandemic recovery. The last 2 years have exacerbated disparities and revealed fault lines in our culture. The time to advance racial and gender parity in leadership is now.

Take The Lead has proven programs to help the economy emerge stronger, with women of all diversities and intersectionalities at the center of recovery, ready to take leadership positions across all sectors by 2025.

Our theme for this year's Power Up Conference: REthink, REwire and REcreate will inspire you to break through existing barriers, create healthy new norms and set intentions for your full potential.

Gloria Feldt

Co-Founder & President, Take The Lead

Thank You To Power Up Conference Chair Kim Tarnopolski

Kim Tarnopolski is a multi-talented leader and community advocate who brings years of experience from corporate, owner-managed business, and charitable worlds. She is a community builder who excels in building rapport and attracting individuals to causes and organizations. Kim is highly motivated with a successful track record of making things happen and getting things done. She is known for quality, exceptional client service, high ethical standards, and a professional reputation.

Kim started her career in corporate America before moving into entrepreneurship to run her own business - a human resources consulting firm. These two decades of business experience gave her the opportunity to hone her skills in communication, accountability, relationship building, policy and process development, complex decision making and problem solving, and business management.

After making her impact in the business world, she shifted her focus and priorities to her community. When her daughter was in middle school, she discovered the need and a passion to help youth, teens and young adults maneuver the challenges of adolescence. She was actively involved with Teen Lifeline as a board and committee member for several years.

In 2004, Kim learned about a giving circle model of philanthropy and founded 100+ Women Who Care Valley of the Sun. Through 100WWC, funding, awareness, and exposure have been brought to Phoenix metro nonprofits that are making an incredible impact on the lives of their community members. She is personally responsible for the grant process and communication with their charities. As of today, almost $1 Million has been donated to over 90 local nonprofits. Kim is also the Grant Manager for The Lodestar Foundation, a private organization focused on promoting philanthropy and collaboration in the nonprofit sector.

Kim is an active member of ASU's Women and Philanthropy group along with the President's Club. She is a graduate of the FBI's Citizen's Academy and member of their Alumni Association. These two organizations provide her with valuable information about our higher education system and risks to our society.

She is a community steward who has made a Valley wide impact to better the lives and opportunities for others.
